For Canada's
Prime Ministers

DRAMA CRITICS have dangerous jobs, even in Canada. At left is Roland Oler, critic of Montreal's La Canada. He has taken to wearing a caulkers' mask every time he is dropped around by author Jean-Louis Basse, (right). It all started when Basse's play, Rose La Tourette, opened in Montreal and was panned by Oler. Critic and author met accidentally afterwards and the irate author slapped Oler's face. It is reported that Oler is going to sue the over-enthusiastic author.

TUNA TROPHY—The Rod and Gun Editors Association of New York pressed its plan for the outstanding fishing achievement of 1957 to Comm. Duncan M. Hodgson of Montreal. Mr. Hodgson established a new world record with a 97-lb. tuna caught at St. Ann Bay, Nova Scotia, last September. Comm. Hodgson has been recalled by the Navy and Harrison Cleveland, (right), is shown accepting the trophy on his behalf from Henry Schaefer, president of the Rod and Gun Editors Association.

UNITED IN CAUSE OF JUSTICE—“Making up” after 10 years of dissension, the presidents of Haiti and the Dominican Republic recently met on frontier of two countries, where they agreed to fight communists jointly, to protect rights of migratory workers, establish equitable export-import tariffs between their two countries and work together in all quarters, economic and political matters affecting both countries. Ready to embrace effusively at Port-au-Prince, Haiti, are Rafael Trujillo, (left), president of the Dominican Republic, and Paul Magloire, chief executive of Haiti.—Central Press Canadian.

CANADA'S PRIME MINISTERS TO HAVE FIRST OFFICIAL RESIDENCE IN 14 YEARS—After 14 years of finding their own accommodations, Canada's prime ministers are to have an official residence. Chances point to 20 Downing Street, London, will be No. 24 Sussex Street, Ottawa, into which Prime Minister and Mrs. Louis St. Laurent will move this spring. Seen above is an artist's sketch of west entrance of beautiful old house.—Central Press Canadian.

OH, FOR THE LIFE OF A SAILOR!—Hundreds of families and close friends of personnel on board the cruiser, U.S.S. Ontario, were on hand to bid farewell to the ship as she left her port at Esquimaux, B.C., for a three-month training cruise to southern Pacific waters. The majestic 9,600-ton warship will include visits to Australia and New Zealand in her travels.—Central Press Canadian.

NAMED NEW COMMANDER—Major-General Oliver Prince Smith, seen above, commander of the 1st U.S. Marine division, has been named commander of the U.S. 1st Marine Corps in Korea. Smith, who helped plan most of the amphibious landings of the marine corps in the Pacific during World War II, will succeed late Major-General Bryant B. Moore, who suffered a fatal heart attack following an air crash in Korea.—Central Press Canadian.

BANKER STALLED HANDS—“Rattling around for time” by Neil Shortreed, manager of Bank of Commerce branch at Pickering, Ont., kept lost started by two armed men, just before a 10:00 closing time, escaped money from a cash drawer into a cash bag, they ordered manager to open the vault, it stalled around so long that they finally got jittery and ran,” said Mr. Shortreed.—Central Press Canadian.

APPOINTED TO NEW KEY DEFENCE JOB—Crawford Gordon of Toronto, president of the Canadian Electric Company of Canada, has joined the procession of high executives of industry who are being drafted into Trade Minister Havel's new defence production department. Mr. Gordon is being appointed to the post of co-ordinator of production, one of the top jobs in this new department.—Central Press Canadian.

It is estimated that every odd copy of a newspaper is read by three persons, on an average.

WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE MOVEMENT IS UNDERWAY IN EGYPT—These leading movements for women's suffrage, now under way in Egypt, decided to adopt direct action to put their claims before the legislature of the country. So led by Madame Doris Chell, seen at left wearing black and white, president of the British Women's Suffrage Movement, the women marched to the parliament house in Cairo, where they made their protests to the president of the senate, who stated that he would give their claims his immediate attention. Only then were the ladies satisfied and the crowd withdrew without incident.—Central Press Canadian.

BACK IN LIMELIGHT DESPITE PROTESTS—Dr. Hishmar Schaefer, former German finance minister, has shown fighting awareness breakfast as he left his hotel in Paris to visit friends living in the French capital. Schaefer, who was arrested by the Allies as a war criminal, but released after a Nuremberg trial, has been out of public life for some time.—Central Press Canadian.

STRATFORD SCHOOL HAS MORE THAN ITS SHARE OF “DOUBLE TROUBLE”—Aly Wyse hard to tell apart is the McHollis question and who can answer it better than the school teachers at Stratford, Ont. For there are seven sets of twins in attendance here, which is believed to be a record in Canada. One set of “double trouble” are Judy Anne and Anne Judy Yarnes, five-year-old brunettes, who are in kindergarten class.

WHAT MAKES A GENIUS TICK?—Tiny metal electrodes are attached to head of Dr. Albert Einstein to pick up impulses from his brain and to magnify and record them for study. Dr. Alexandre P. Avila, of Lima, Peru, currently on a fellowship at Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston, shows beside Einstein. Result of the study of Einstein's brain waves led to theory that in his mind, rated as a genius, many separate groups of brain cells work a problem at once, with his mind “jumping” on one group of cells after another.

CHARLES S. SMITH, on a Los Angeles real estate broker, scrubs himself of grime and feathers with which he was covered by three men he said told him, spent for 48 hours and robbed him of $1,000. Smith said he believed the men, who accused him of running “a rip rental racket” had mistaken him for somebody else.

VICTIM OF FATAL DISEASE WHICH KNOWS NO CURE—A middle-aged man with no known disease has been hospitalized at Cornwall, Ont., for many years. Doctors have given up hope of saving his life, but Alfred Frampton, seen with daughter Sylvia, (right), because he is hoping for a miracle to happen. At 53, Mr. Frampton is one of hundreds in Canada suffering from muscular dystrophy, a peculiar ailment that has baffled scientists for decades. In advanced stages, a person suffering from this disease lacks sufficient strength to even turn his head. Yet despite this gloomy outlook, Mr. Frampton is optimistic that some day, he feels sure, a doctor will devise a cure for the malady which threatens his life.—Central Press Canadian.

THE TALE OF A MUSTACHE—At one time policeman Mohamed Ibrahim (above) shaved a five-month-old white mustache from the swanky royal yacht estate of Alexandria, Egypt. Ahmed's commandant ruled that the mustache was a nuisance and that it interfered with the traffic; so he ordered Ahmed to take it off. Now, the five-month-old mustache complains that the order violated his constitutional rights, pointing out that police rules do not prohibit “the upper lip adornment”. His complaint is being considered. Since the trouble started, Ahmed has lost his job as traffic controller. He was transferred first to a ston district and now reports he is that up to now in some small village. Ahmed claims these transfers were not necessary and wants his former job back. Photo shows Mohammed Ibrahim (above) on Ahmed on traffic control duty, before he was ordered to remove his mustache.

Bert Schoepke exhibited two bulls at the Calgary Show last week, and had some trouble due to the state of the roads.

Stan. Larson, who was compelled to leave his truck down at Drumheller last Monday week brought it back on Tuesday.

Mrs. Paul Eberly and son, Donnie, left Saturday morning last for Calgary for a few days visit in the city, and returned on Wednesday.

The Massey-Harris Show, sponsored by W. D. Fitzsimmons, for April 28th, has been further postponed due to the bad on the roads. Further announcement will be made at a later date.

Miss Marjorie Gibson, R. N., from Edmonton, spent Easter at the home of her parents. Wishing to return on Monday and the road to Drumheller being bad, Miss Gibson obtained accommodation by freight train to Mounson in order to catch the Edmonton train.
